Urgent Notification

This is to inform all concerned that as per the Government announcements regarding national lockdown to combat COVID-19, the college will remain closed till 3rd May, 2020 in the public interest.

Date for reopening of the college and resumption of regular classes, examinations etc. will be notified here in due course of time.

However, some essential administrative and emergency services may remain open occasionally as per local need. No visitor should be allowed during this period, without prior permission of the authority.

In order to minimize academic loss during this lockdown period and reinforce the process of online learning for the benefit of our students, the college has introduced provisions for e-learning and online classes. Teachers and students are requested to participate in the process of e-learning and online classes that are available at the college website. Students are requested to send their feedback regarding this e learning resources to the college email id mentioned in the website.

Furthermore, all teachers are requested to keep the records of their e-learning resources and online classes for future reference as and when required.

Wishing you all healthy and safe stay at home.
